

Fund Objective

Seeks high current income with a secondary objective of capital appreciation.

Fund Highlights

- Combines multiple income producing investment strategies - global dividend equities, preferred securities, real estate investment trusts (REITs) and Buy-Writes, into a single fund that seeks a high level of monthly income.
- By exploring asset classes that are less correlated with traditional bond markets, the Fund may provide more diversified income opportunities than fixed income investments alone.
- This multi-asset class approach is designed to help deliver attractive yields and risk-adjusted returns, conveniently in one portfolio.
